

*unequal access to health care means treatable and preventable diseases are killing people in remote northern communities

